

to Chris Kullgaard

"THE LUMBERJACK SONG"

David Snow

for solo contrabass

/// Sawing, sawing, all day sawing! It ain't easy being a lumberjack. You can get your head cut off. Or worse.

/// There's bears out in them woods. Cold and wet, lots of snakes... We lumberjacks drink lots of beer. Eat plenty pancakes too.

/// You need a big breakfast to cut down trees all day. We drink and smoke and curse, raise Cain every Saturday night.

/// But on Sunday it's to church we go. Even a lumberjack gets to pray sometime.

/// Big John, he goes "HA-HA". You should hear him laugh, Big John, all over the place, "HA-HA". "HA-HA-HA".

/// "HA-HA-HA-HA-HA". What a jerk.

/// Sawing, sawing, all day sawing! It ain't easy being a lumberjack.

Fine
3/25/79